THE PRESS.

CINCINNATI, SATURDAY, APRIL 23.

A Female Crusse. On Friday last the schooner Ozelle, Captain Marvin, master, arrived at Racine, Wisconsin, from Marquette, Lake Superior, having on board a young lady, Miss Sophia Richardson, twenty-two years of age, formerly of Cleveland, Ohio, who for the last three years has been living in solitude upon a desolate and uninhabited island in Lake Superior, near the British Coast, and north-west from Isle Royal, upon which she was cast away in the spring of 1856. Miss Richardson sailed from Cleveland, Ohio, in the bark Mary, under the care of her cousin, Mr. George Richardson, mate of the vessel. The bark was bound for Green Bay, where Miss R. was to have met her affinnced husband, Mr. Daniel Ashnell. A violent storm arose after the back had passed the great Manitouline, and, unfortunately, just then Capt. Edward tapped a barrel of whisky, of which captain, mate, and erew, drank so freely they were unable to keep the vessel in her course. Scon they found themselves upon an island, supposed to be Michipicoten,) and all hope of getting off was given up; she was moreover, leaking badly. The storm continued with unabated fury; the rudder of the ship was broken; the rigging torn to tatters; the yaw stove in, while the breakers lashed the unfor tunate vessel with terrific fury. The only life-preserver on board was given to Miss Richardon, who inflated it and tied it beneath her The captain and the crew leaped overboard as she struck, and Miss Richardson and her consin were about to follow, when a spar from the broken and shattered mast fell to the deck, striking the mate upon the head and instantly killing him. Miss Richardson's courage forsook her at this awful sight, and she sank insensible upon the deck. When she came to herself the saw nothing of the captain and crew, but at her side lay the dead body of her cousin George She remained hours on the vessel, but at length resolved on making an effort to get ashore, as the storm was rapidly abating. She lashed her trunks to a spar which she lowered into the waves and then followed—the life-preserver supporting her ad-mirably. She floated to shore, which she found covered with casks, boxes, planks, bales, etc., most of which she managed to scoure. She then made a bed of buffalo robes and laid down, and, on awaking next morning, she explored the island, which she found to be uninhabited. Her next inquiry was for provisions, which she found in such abundance as to insure her against want for three or four years. Next she constructed a hut of boxes, planks and poices, over which she spread a sail. Here she made herself as comfortable as she possibly could under the circumstances, until she was taken off, as above stated, at the end of three years. [Can this story be true?—Ep.]

SICKLES' COUNTRY-HOUSE AND ITS OCCUPANTS. The New York correspondent of the Boston Journal, in describing the country-seats that line the Bloomingdale Road, between New York and Harlem, says: One of these commands attention from all who pass by it. It is near Seventeenth street. It seems to be the abode of wealth and taste. And if situation, beauty of grounds, elegance of scenery, and all the appliances that wealth and liberality can command can bring peace and joy, this house must be the residence of purity and domestic felicity. The house is a large wooden edifice, painted a dark color. The grounds are large and commanding; they are laid out with great taste; the trees, the vines, the flowers, the singing-birds, the large green-houses and conservatories, the graveled walks, the shade trees, the hand of care seen on all things, indicate the thrift and wealth of the owner. It is the country home of Hon. Daniel E. Sickles. Its owner is on trial for his life at Washington. The present occupants of that splendid residence are his guilty wife and her broken-hearted mother.

SUDDES DEATH .- On Saturday afternoon the wife of Mr. Joseph Graham, of East Liberty, Pittsburg, died suddenly, under very distressing circumstances. It appears that the lady had been engaged on Saturday in her usual domestic avocations, and at about three o'clock in the afternoon went up stairs to change her clothes. She had hardly got to the room when she called her two little girls and told them to run for a neighbor, as she was dying. The little ones started, and the nearest neighbor came, but when he arrived the unfortunate lady was just about expiring. Dr. Beaty was summoned, who decided that she had ruptured an important blood vessel, and had died of in an important clood vessel, and had ded of in-ternal hemorrhage. Mr. Graham had left the house to visit the city immediately after din-ner, to attend to some business, leaving his wife in her usual health, and returned about five o'clock to find her a corpse,—Dispatch.

A New DIFFICULTY.—We quote from the N.Y. Tribune: A new controversy with Great Britain is growing up in the North-west. It seems that when Mr. Polk and Mr. Buchanan gave up the right of the United States to all the territory on the Pacific, as far as fifty-four degrees forty minutes North latitude, they laid down the new boundary, which they adopted, in such an ignorant and careless manner, that it is now uncertain whether certain waters and islands belong to Great Britain or Washington Territory. The recent gold discoveries in Fracer River, and the consequent influx of settlers, have rendered these doubtful islands valuable; and according to our correspondent at San Francisco, difficulty on the subject is at hand. His letter, which we give on another page, states lucidly all the facts bearing upon the dispute.

THE TEXAN FRONTIER.-A correspondent of The Texan Frontier.—A correspondent of the Belton Independent, who was in the party which pursued the late marauding Indians in that county, gives a full detail of the trip. They followed the trail one hundred and sixty miles from Belton, and reached Hord's Creek at about fifteen miles above Camp Colorado, when it was then thought the Indians were about ten or twelve hours ahead of them. At about ten or twelve hours ahead of them. At the camp it was learned that a part of McMillan's Company had captured thirty can horses from the Indians. McMillan pursued them with eighteen men. He is said to have found on the graves of the Jacksons Perryman's saddle-bags and a dress supposed to belong to Mrs. Riggs. Capt. John Williams was aiming to head another trail of Indians, and was on his way to the head of the Jim Ned, a gap sixty miles above the Camp Colorado. sixty miles above the Camp Colorado.

GAS METERS .- The Legislature of New York have passed a bill which provides for the ap-pointment of a State Inspector of Gas Meters. Hereafter all meters will pass under his inspec-tion before they will be lessed by the companies, and whoever may consider himself aggrieved by the quarterly statement of the gas consumed on his premises must hold the State Inspector responsible, and not the com-panies. The effect of the bill is to relieve the companies of responsibility in this respect. A pro-rata assessment is levied on the companies to defray the expenses of the new depart-

INCIDENT IN THE N. Y. CARS .- On Sunday evening, as one of the Third avenue cars was on its down trip, quite full, two colored women entered. They, of course, seized the strings, and remained standing, as no one was expected, according to the pariance of some present, "to rise and let a nigger sit." A young man, however, who appeared to be most respectable, touched a person next to him, who appeared to be his comrade, and, after rising, bowed politely and tendered his and his friend's seat to the adies, amid the suppressed laughter of reveral.

BACON EXPORTED PROM TEXAS .- We are glad to see by the Indianola Courier, that Texasraised bacon is now an article of export. The Courier observes that within the last few weeks, a good quantity of bacon has been exported to New Orleans. Had we a railroad to Austin, we could ship millions of pounds from this city alone, adds the Austin Gazette.

2010-11. GLEANINGS FROM OUR EXCHANGES.

HEAVY RAIN-STORM.—The river yesterday was falling tolerably fast in the morning, but quite slowly in the evening, owing to the continued heavy rain, with fully seven feet water on the Falls for steamboats. In the pass, or dog-chute, there was eight feet and in the Canal ten feet by the mark. During the previous weaty-four hours the river had recoded fifteen inches. The weather has been very wet, with tremendons rains in the morning, during the day and again in the evening, accompanied by the sharpest lightning and heaviest thunder ever experienced in this latitude.

Testerday morning, one of a pair of coal-howts helonging to Miller & Co., while descending the Falls, was sunk and totally lest. The crew cut the other boat's lashinas, and jumped on it just as the other went to pieces. The boats were under the guidance of pilot Barnably, and it is thought were drawing rather too much water, or more than was represented, and no blame attaches to the pilot. This pair of boats were in charge of William Gilmore, who will not be able to prosecute this trip until he gets a mate for the boat that was saved.

The andden storm last evening canght the Aurora on the Falls, just as she was crossing Picnyune Bar to ascend the middle chute. She was rounded to in a twinkling, and carried headforemost into the Tamscon Mill. Capt. Varble, the indomitable Falls pilot was at he wheel, and, seeing the squal coming, had the engines stopped and reversed in time, which saved both the boat and the mill from destruction. apig-it

District, Indiana.

Dr. Gro. W. Phillips, Cincinnati, Ohio:—Having and several small bottles of your "Cough Syrup, sersonally and in my family, and having seen its efects on others, in numerous instances of severe cold and coughs, I most cheerfully recommend it as an inalible remedy in all such cases. If this Syrup were n general use, I confidently believe a large majority of the coldes, accompanied by coughs, that now terminate in Consumption, would be effectually arrested, in fact, I can see no necessity for any, who can obtain his remedy, being thus afflicted.

Respectfully yours, From Hon. B. Storer, LL. D., Judge of the Superior Court of Cincinnati.

Court of Cincinnati.
